If Tenant terminates occupancy without notifying the Holder, Holder may make a final inspection within a reasonable time after discovering the termination of occupancy. The prevailing defendant in the interpleader lawsuit shall be entitled to collect its attorneys' fees and court costs and the amount deducted by Holder from the non-prevailing party. All parties hereby agree to indemnify and hold Holder harmless from and against all claims, causes of action, suits and damages arising out of or related to the performance by Holder of its duties hereunder. 8. Pets. No pets are allowed or shall be kept in the Premises or on the Property unless a separate pet exhibit is attached to and incorporated into this Lease.
9. No Smoking. Unless specifically authorized in this Agreement, Premises shall be a smoke free zone and smoking shall not be permitted therein. This includes electronic cigarettes and vaping.
10. No Subletting. Tenant may not sublet Premises in whole or in part or assign this Lease without the prior written consent of Landlord which consent may be withheld for any reason or for no reason. This Lease shall create the relationship of Landlord and Tenant between the parties hereto. Tenant is specifically prohibited from offering all or part of the Premises for short-term rental such as through AirBnB, VRBO, or other such sites or programs, regardless of any local laws that may be or have been enacted. Any advertising or on-line postings as well as actual rentals of the Premises to vacation or short-term guests shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement for which Tenant shall not be given an opportunity to cure. Any person who is not a Tenant, as defined herein, who occupies any portion of the Premises, for any period of time whatsoever, for any compensation or consideration whatsoever (including, without limitation, the payment of money and/or trade and/or barter of other goods, services, or property occupancy rights) is NOT a guest, and such occupancy constitutes unauthorized subletting or assignment which is a substantial and material breach of this Agreement.

Tenant shall select and connect all utilities to be paid for by Tenant within three (3) banking days from the commencement of the Lease and shall keep these utilities on through the completion of the Move-Out Inspection. In addition, Tenant shall immediately cause any such utility to be transferred to Tenant's name so that the bill goes to and is paid directly by Tenant.
12. Tenant's Option to Terminate Early.
- a. Right to Terminate Early: Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease early only if Tenant has expressly been given the right to terminate the Lease early as provided elsewhere herein, Tenant is not in default hereunder at the time of giving notice, Tenant has strictly complied with all of the provisions of this paragraph, Tenant continues to pay rent on time and in full for the months prior to the Termination Date, Tenant pays any additional fees due per this section on time as set out in the Primary Terms section, and termination is as of the last day of a calendar month. If all of these conditions have been met, Tenant may terminate this Lease by following the procedures set forth elsewhere herein and returning the Premises in a clean and rent ready condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted. To be effective, any notice for early termination must be signed by all Tenants. Tenant's election of early termination shall not relieve Tenant of responsibilities and obligations regarding damage to Premises and/or Property. Tenant may not apply the security deposit toward the payment of any of Tenant's financial obligations set forth herein.
- b. Military Activation: Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained herein, if Tenant is called to active duty in the military during the term of this Lease, Tenant shall present to Landlord the official orders activating Tenant; then and in that event, this Lease shall be controlled by the Service Members' Civil Relief Act of 2003 as amended in 50 U.S.C.A. § 50-534 and O.C.G.A. § 44-7-22.

13. Landlord's Option to Terminate Early. If Landlord had a right to terminate the Lease early, Landlord may terminate the Lease prior to the Lease expiration date and in such event Tenant agrees to vacate the Premises subject to the following:
- a. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of the early termination and to vacate (in which case Tenant shall still owe rent through the notice period); and
- b. After Tenant has vacated the Premises, Landlord shall credit to Tenant the Early Termination Fee to Tenant as liquidated damages for disturbing Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Premises and for the inconvenience of moving early. This credit will be applied to the Tenant account at the time the Tenant vacates the Premises and shall be included with any applicable security deposit refund. The foregoing shall not relieve the Tenant of his or her responsibilities and obligations regarding any damage to the property. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained herein, Landlord shall owe no early termination fee to Tenant if Landlord's early termination is due to a default under the Lease by the Tenant or the Premises becoming uninhabitable due to an event of destruction as set forth in Section C(7) of this Lease.
14. Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to remain in the Premises after the termination or expiration of this Lease. Should Tenant fail to vacate the Premises upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Tenant shall pay Landlord the per day Holding Over Fee set forth elsewhere herein for every day that Tenant holds over after the expiration or termination of this Lease. Acceptance of the Holding Over Fee by Landlord shall in no way limit Landlord's right to treat Tenant as a tenant at sufferance for unlawfully holding over and to dispossess Tenant for the same. The increased rent during such holding over is intended to partially compensate Landlord for losses, damages, and expenses, including frustrating and delaying Landlord's ability to secure a replacement tenant or to sell the Property. If Landlord loses a prospective tenant or buyer because Tenant fails to vacate the Property upon the expiration of the Lease, Tenant will be liable for such monetary damages as Landlord can prove because of Tenant's wrongful failure to vacate.
15. Fee to Prepare Lease Amendment. Should Tenant request and Landlord consent to modifying the Lease, Tenant agrees to pay Manager the Fee to Prepare Lease Amendment set forth elsewhere herein.

- 16. Use. Premises shall be used for residential purposes only and shall be occupied only by those persons listed in this Agreement. Any adult that resided in the Property for more than fourteen (14) consecutive days or twenty-eight (28) non-consecutive days in any twelve (12) month period shall be an unauthorized occupant in violation of this paragraph unless such adult undergoes Landlord's application process and is added to this Lease by mutual agreement. Tenant agrees that any violation or noncompliance of the above resulting in fines, sanctions or penalties being imposed against Landlord or Manager shall be the financial responsibility of and immediately paid by the Tenant to Landlord as Additional Rent. Tenant shall be responsible for ensuring that Tenant, all occupants of the Premises and their respective invitees, licensees, contractors and guests comply with the Rules and Regulations set forth below and not engage in any activity while on Property or in Premises that is unlawful, would endanger the health and safety of others or would otherwise create a nuisance. In the event Tenant or any of the above-named parties are arrested or indicted for any unlawful activity occurring on Property or for a felony occurring off of the Property and said charges are not dismissed within thirty (30) days thereafter, Tenant shall be deemed to be in default of this Lease and Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, terminate this Lease upon notice to Tenant. For the purpose of this Lease, an unlawful activity shall be deemed to be any activity in violation of local, state or federal law.

Notwithstanding the above, if the Premises cannot be made habitable within thirty (30) days of such destruction, or if Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that the Premises cannot be made habitable within this timeframe, then either Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease, upon notice to the other party. 9. GAR Forms. The Georgia Association of REALTORS®, Inc. ("GAR") issues certain standard real estate forms. These GAR forms are frequently provided to the parties in real estate transactions. No party is required to use any GAR form. Since these forms are generic and written with the interests of multiple parties in mind, they may need to be modified to meet the specific needs of the parties using them. If any party has any questions about his or her rights and obligations under any GAR form, he or she should consult an attorney. Provisions in the GAR Forms are subject to differing interpretations by our courts other than what the parties may have intended. At times, our courts may strike down or not enforce provisions in our GAR Forms, as written. No representation is made that the GAR Forms will protect the interests of any particular party or will be fit for any specific purpose. The parties hereto agree that the GAR forms may only be used in accordance with the licensing agreement of GAR. While GAR forms may be modified by the parties, no GAR form may be reproduced with sections removed, altered or modified unless the changes are visible on the form itself or in a stipulation, addendum, exhibit or amendment thereto.

10. Additional Rules & Regulations. In addition to the rules and regulations generally listed in this Agreement, the following additional rules also apply:

11. Beware of Cyber Fraud: Fraudulent e-mails attempting to get you to wire money to criminal computer hackers are increasingly common in real estate transactions. Under this scam, computer hackers fraudulently assume the online identity of the actual mortgage lender, closing attorney and/or real estate broker with whom you are working in the real estate transaction. Posing as a legitimate company, they then direct you to wire money to them. In many cases, the fraudulent e-mail is sent from what appears to be the authentic web page of the legitimate company responsible for sending the wiring instructions. You should use great caution in sending or receiving funds based solely on wiring instructions sent to you by e-mail. Independently verifying the wiring instructions with someone from the company sending them is the best way to prevent fraud. In particular, you should treat as highly suspect any follow up e-mails you receive from a mortgage lender, closing attorney and/or real estate broker directing you to wire funds to a revised account number. Never verify wiring instructions by calling a telephone number provided along with a second set of wiring instructions since you may end up receiving a fraudulent verification from the computer hackers trying to steal your money. Independently look up the telephone number of the company who is supposed to be sending you the wiring instructions to make sure you have the right one.
